

"I take the stand that there were 72 delegates in that convention who were not entitled to seats. In voting to unseat them, I do not believe that I violated the pledge of the Republican convention at Provo. The delegates to the national convention were pledged to use every honorable means to nominate President Taft. If stealing is honorable, then I violated the trust and confidence of the Republican party in voting against these delegates. These delegates were Roosevelt delegates, and the leaders of the Republican party needed them to nominate Taft and they were seated."—Statement by Colonel C. E. Loose of Utah.

STRIKE OF HUSBANDETTES!

Amalgamated Union No. 19 Goes Out At Noon.

(From the Woman's Bulletin of 1925.)

Shortly after noon today crowds of Husbandettes began collecting about the public parks in various parts of the city, and announced their intention of striking for more privileges.

Mr. Purely Bluff, one of the leaders of the movement, announced that the following would be made:

Shorter hours, the preparation of but two meals a day, two evenings off each week, female wet nurses for the babies, the privilege of smoking in at least one room in the house, and noninterference in all flirtations with postwomen and policewomen.

Of course, their demands are absurd and cannot be acceded to.

Mayor Grumpington has called out the Shirtwaist militia, that they may be in readiness should any violence occur. No violence is looked for, however, for at heart the husbandette is a coward.

An arbitration committee has been formed consisting of Mrs. Toughorn Leather, Mrs. Goshwhatta Face, Mrs. Allaround Stickout, Miss Looklyke Pickels and Miss Dontgliva Hang.
